

Lonely tonight

Lonely tonight, I'm jealous of sleep;
Searching for signs...of life's great mysteries.

Solitude...has taken over my mood;
Deepening this darkened room.

*'Cos I'm lonely tonight...I'll weather this storm;
'Cos I'm lonely tonight...I need you to bring me home.*

The silence is black, and my mind's running wild;
Innocence...like a child.

Satin and silk, comforts increase;
Decadence...brings no peace

*'Cos I'm lonely tonight...I'll weather this storm;
'Cos I'm lonely tonight...I need you to bring me hope*

That a better day can lie ahead,
Love can conquer fear instead
It's a new day, a new start
A clean sheet, and out of the dark...and into the light.

*'Cos I'm lonely tonight...I'll weather this storm;
'Cos I'm lonely tonight...I need you to bring me home.*
